

DuPont has recently made available 3 co-op opportunities available for Fall 2011 at their Richmond, Virginia facility. These positions are available to undergraduate students majoring in the BIT, CS, or CpE. For additional information on this position and application instructions, log into Hokies4Hire through the Career Services website (www.career.vt.edu) and search for Job ID: 26083.

Why Co-op or Intern through the Co-op/Internship Program???

Increase employment opportunities upon graduation

Provide support to You while you are away at work in case questions or problems arise

Help clarify career options

Increase technical knowledge & skills

Develop objectives with employer and work toward goals you have interest in obtaining

Increase soft skills

Integrate classroom & lab theory with professional applications & real world assignments

Maintain full-time student status with Virginia Tech

Register and search Hokies4Hire for this co-op opportunity, as well as numerous others.

For more information on the Virginia Tech Co-op/Internship Program, visit us online at www.career.vt.edu/coop-intern. Additional inquiries about the program may be made to Julie.mills@vt.edu.

Julie Mills

Co-op/Internship Program Coordinator & Advisor

Externship Program Coordinator

Smith Career Center (0128)

Virginia Tech – Student Affairs

(540)231-6241