

WEB DEVELOPERS NEEDED!

Web Support Services in The Blacksburg Electronic Village is hiring!

<!--Job Description-->

Highly-motivated Virginia Tech students with web design and web application skills are needed to work on multiple projects in a web development team, starting immediately.

<!--Learning Experience-->

Professional web design, template and content management-based development, customer relationship management, project management, team management, leadership skills.

<!--Qualifications-->

Experience with HTML, CSS, and computer programming required. We're also looking for experience in team leadership, Adobe Creative Suite, Dreamweaver, Drupal CMS, PHP, Javascript, MySQL, and graphic design.

<!--Hours/Pay/Location-->

Part time, 15-20 hrs/wk. Summer and long-term school year employment available. Starting pay at $9.50/hr and up, commensurate with experience. Web Support Services is located in Research Building 14 at the Virginia Tech Corporate Research Center.

Send résumé to wssjobs@bev.net as soon as possible.
Please include links to relevant previous work if available.