Compusearch Software Systems
Software Engineer

Compusearch Software Systems will be conducting on campus interviews on 3/20/17 for the position of Software Engineer and would like to invite qualified students to submit resumes. Interested students should submit resumes through Hokies4Hire no later than 3/5/17 to be considered for an interview. Please note this position does require U.S. Citizenship.

Job Description: Software Engineers

- Develop code to recognized standards
- Maintain accurate records of objects modified
- Attend project meetings and contributing to various discussions
- Deliver code within published delivery dates
- Write code that is maintainable and free from error
- Run unit tests to ensure code works as designed
- Run overall integration tests to ensure code does not adversely affect existing programs

Skills/Abilities, and Education:

- Bachelor’s degree in a related field
- Experience with web development
- Classroom or work experience coding in .NET and Oracle
- Knowledge of Classic ASP is a plus
- Classroom or work experience with – HTML, Java script, CSS, XML
- Proficient communicator in both oral presentation and writing ability
- BA or BS
- U.S. Citizenship Required

Physical Requirements:

Qualified candidates will need to be able to move/traverse throughout work facility, be able to remain in a stationary position for significant amount of the work day, and communicate frequently with co-workers.

Clearance:

Applicants may need to apply for security clearances and may need to meet eligibility requirements for access to classified information to include US Citizenship.

Qualifications: Skills/Abilities, and Education:

- Bachelor’s degree in a related field
- Experience with web development
- Classroom or work experience coding in .NET and Oracle
- Knowledge of Classic ASP is a plus
- Classroom or work experience with – HTML, Java script, CSS, XML
- Proficient communicator in both oral presentation and writing ability
- BA or BS
- U.S. Citizenship Required

Physical Requirements:

Qualified candidates will need to be able to move/traverse throughout work facility, be able to remain in a stationary position for significant amount of the work day, and communicate frequently with co-workers.

Clearance:

Applicants may need to apply for security clearances and may need to meet eligibility requirements for access to classified information to include US Citizenship.